

HERALD
Sincere Copies of the Herald, 5 Cents

Herald Steam Printing House.
The HERALD Steam Printing House is unsurpassed by any job printing office on the Pacific coast, notably in San Francisco, in facilities for doing job work. Low prices, good work and execution may be relied upon at this office.

Special Notice.

RECENT notices of companies, societies, etc., will only be inserted in the HERALD as paid advertisements. We reserve for places of worship a gratuitous directory which will appear every Sunday morning.

The HERALD is connected with the telephone system of Los Angeles city and county. Orders for advertisements or job work may be sent through this medium to Number 156.

The HERALD is the official paper of the city of Los Angeles. The city delinquent tax lists and all other municipal notices appear only in its columns.

Mr. B. R. Howe is the Santa Ana agent of the HERALD.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Times, is not always happy in its political predictions. In its issue of yesterday, speaking of the possible nomination of General Dimond by the Republicans as a candidate for Governor, it says:

"Whether our man be a Dimond or some other brilliant, he is going in with a flash—and don't you let the prime fact get away from the recesses of your mind."

The pernicious editor used this identical language with regard to Davison the day before he was scooped by David B. Hill for Governor of New York. "Prime facts" and "essences" are handily things to have about the house, but we have no hesitation in assuring our contemporary that if the Republicans trot out Gen. Dimond for Governor of the Golden State the Democrats will show up with a standard-bearer fully equipped for the game of "diamond cut diamond." Their article will be found to be of the Pinchbeck grade that won't stand the wear and tear of an arduous campaign.

It is a thing not generally known, but it is a fact that about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars per annum have been sent to St. Louis and Milwaukee during the past two years for beer. All this mangle the fact that we grow in Los Angeles the finest brewing barley in the world, and that Californians mixed with Bohemian hops are the best adapted for making a good malt beverage. The Messrs. Maier & Zobelen, with an enterprise that does them honor have resolved to stop this leak. They have provided themselves with all the modern appliances; and on the 1st of July will place on the market a genuine lager beer of Los Angeles manufacture. Connoisseurs who have sampled this brew pronounce it excellent. It is a pure and honest article, and is said to be superior to the imported beers, which have to be heavily alcoholized to admit of transportation long distances under varying temperatures. Every improvement which lessens the dependence of Los Angeles on the outside world should be hailed with hearty acclain.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list. Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

There is considerable speculation in Washington and all over the country as to who will be Hon. Daniel Manning's successor as Secretary of the Treasury. All accounts agree that this eminent Democrat and able man will be unlikely to resume his office of trust. Under the circumstances it would be a very gracious and sagacious act if Mr. Cleveland were to appoint a western man to this responsible post. New York already has the resident and the Secretary of the Navy, and the claims of that great commonwealth have thus been fully recognized. The appointment of a Secretary of the Treasury from the West who is known to hold views which are not identical with those fashionable on Wall street would add greatly to the popularity of the administration. The distinguished services and worth of Secetary Manning have always been recognized by those who would rather have seen him head of some other department of the government. What millions of Democrats would hail with delight would be the appointment of some Western man as his successor who holds Western views. In the persons of Secretaries McCulloch and Sherman the country has been taught that the mere fact of a man's hailing from the West does not guarantee his soundness on the leading financial issues of the day.

SURVEYS have lately been made with the view of bringing the waters of Piru creek out on the south side of Antelope valley. We learn from reliable authority that there are fully twenty-four hundred inches of water, miners' measurement, available for purposes of irrigation, at this point. Mr. Frank G. Newlands, of San Francisco, is supposed to have been engaged and paid for these surveys, and he is understood to represent the ownership of the water. It is also said that by running the Southern Pacific Railroad along the lands which could be irrigated by the waters from Piru creek the distance between Los Angeles and Bakersfield could be shortened twenty-four miles. With such an abundant supply of water as could be brought from Piru creek there is no impediment to the creation of another Riverside in Antelope valley. The soil is even richer than that at Riverside, and by the judicious planting of wind-breaks, the zephyrs which have been wont to play over the Mojave range could be greatly moderated. All the indications of late point to the belief that all cheap lands in California will very shortly be quite valuable. The demand which is now so lively in Kern, Tulare and Fresno counties cannot fail to be quite active in Antelope valley when the plentiful sources of water supply which are in reach of that section shall be developed by persons of means and enterprise.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Scheme to Sell the Sandwich Islands

TO A EUROPEAN SYNDICATE.

A Good Way for the Printers to Accumulate—Returns from Oregon.

[Special to the Herald by the Associated Press.]

THE HERALD is connected with the telephone system of Los Angeles city and county. Orders for advertisements or job work may be sent through this medium to Number 156.

The HERALD is the official paper of the city of Los Angeles. The city delinquent tax lists and all other municipal notices appear only in its columns.

Mr. B. R. Howe is the Santa Ana agent of the HERALD.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Times, is not always happy in its political predictions. In its issue of yesterday, speaking of the possible nomination of General Dimond by the Republicans as a candidate for Governor, it says:

"Whether our man be a Dimond or some other brilliant, he is going in with a flash—and don't you let the prime fact get away from the recesses of your mind."

The pernicious editor used this identical language with regard to Davison the day before he was scooped by David B. Hill for Governor of New York. "Prime facts" and "essences" are handily things to have about the house, but we have no hesitation in assuring our contemporary that if the Republicans trot out Gen. Dimond for Governor of the Golden State the Democrats will show up with a standard-bearer fully equipped for the game of "diamond cut diamond." Their article will be found to be of the Pinchbeck grade that won't stand the wear and tear of an arduous campaign.

It is a thing not generally known, but it is a fact that about one hundred and fifty thousand dollars per annum have been sent to St. Louis and Milwaukee during the past two years for beer. All this mangle the fact that we grow in Los Angeles the finest brewing barley in the world, and that Californians mixed with Bohemian hops are the best adapted for making a good malt beverage. The Messrs. Maier & Zobelen, with an enterprise that does them honor have resolved to stop this leak. They have provided themselves with all the modern appliances; and on the 1st of July will place on the market a genuine lager beer of Los Angeles manufacture. Connoisseurs who have sampled this brew pronounce it excellent. It is a pure and honest article, and is said to be superior to the imported beers, which have to be heavily alcoholized to admit of transportation long distances under varying temperatures. Every improvement which lessens the dependence of Los Angeles on the outside world should be hailed with hearty acclain.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

EX-MAYOR BRYANT, of San Francisco, is paying Los Angeles a visit. He is not engaged in building political fences, but is here to make an appraisal of the Irvine estate, which comprises the superb San Joaquin ranch, located in the southern portion of Los Angeles county. As far as the avowed candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor go the preference of the masses seems to incline either to Stoneman or Bryant. It is generally conceded that we are to have a candidate from Southern California his excellency, the present incumbent, is the man. Should he fail from Northern or Central California, the ex-Mayor of San Francisco will have the call. Until his formal withdrawal from the race, the name of Hon. Campbell P. Berry would have been included in this list.

Of course a dark horse is liable to spring at any time; and, according to circumstances, he may or may not. But as this case stands to day, the Democratic nominee (and that individual will be the next occupant of the Executive Chamber at the State capitol) will be one of these gentlemen. Mr. Bryant has many friends in Los Angeles, having for years been engaged in developing the oil interests in the Newhall and Pico districts. We hope his sojourn of a week amongst us may be pleasant.

Petitions of Postmaster.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The President today nominated Gilbert P. Hall Postmaster at Petaluma, Cal.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Government bonds dull and steady.

The stock market opened irregular, with prices generally within $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. of last evening's closing figures.

There was considerable irregularity in the morning. Towards noon the market became dull and remained comparatively steady till late in the afternoon, when a small rally took place. This was followed in turn by a dull, heavy tone, lasting till the close.

GOVERNMENT BONDS AND RAILWAY SHARES.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Money on call was 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; prime paper, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; exchange bill, 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.; 60 days, \$4.88 demand.

MINING STOCKS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Best & Lehman, 85c; Chollar, 40s; Gould & Curran, 85c; Morris, 22s; Nevada, 45c;

North American, 26s; Pacific Improvement, 18s; Pacific Railway, 9s; Texas & Pacific, 45c; Union Consolidated, 40s; Yellow Jacket, 80c.

THE PRINTERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Wheat

THE LOS ANGELES MARKETS

The following quotations are corrected daily from the official records of the Produce Exchange:

HIGHEST LOWEST BID. ASKED.

Wheat.

Australian, No. 1.....
No. 2.....
No. 3.....

White Russian.....
Gold Drop.....

Southern.....
Defense, No. 1 seed.....

Oklahoma, No. 2.....
No. 3.....

Rye.

No. 1.....
No. 2.....

Oats.

Surprise, No. 1.....
Fed., No. 1.....

Fed. No. 1, old.....
New.....

Hewing, No. 1, old.....
Old.....

Baker's Old.....

Corn.....

Large yellow (old).....
Jobs.....

Egyptian corn.....
Large yellow (old).....

Large white.....
Small white.....

Mixed corn.....

Flour.

Los Angeles, XXX, Patent.....

Highland Mills.....

Flour & Vicker's.....
Mill Feed.

Bran.....

Short bran.....

Mixed feed.....

Mixed corn and barley.....

Usual.....

Unseeded barley.....

Ground barley.....

Stale barley.....

Grain Bags.

Mill Sacks.....

188 Calcutta spot.....

Potato Sack.....
Seed.

Alfalfa, new.....
Hay.

Harvest, W. B. No. 1, old.....
Fed., No. 1.....

Barley, H. B. No. 1.....

Alfalfa, W. B. No. 1.....

Wheat, H. B. No. 1.....
C. W. B. No. 1.....

Mixed Hay.....

Potatoes.

Fancy, Red and White.....

Butter.

1-lb. Soap, H. B. No. 1.....

Chloride Roll, 1-lb. No. 1.....

Almond Roll, 1-lb. No. 1.....

Black Roll, 1-lb. No. 1.....

Flickled Roll, 1-lb. No. 1.....

Locating.

Cheese.

1-lb. Cheddar, 1-lb. No. 1.....

